

Teaching in D.C

Start your application: <http://joindcpublicschools.com/teachers>. This website also has a video about teaching in DCPS and FAQs.

Type of License (Students will qualify under A or C)	Requirements
Option A	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Is currently admitted into a state-approved teacher education program that prepares individuals to teach the subject and grade level matching the teaching assignment;2. Has achieved passing scores for the DC-required basic skills (reading, writing, and math) exam and subject content exam matching the teaching assignment; * and3. Has been hired or contracted as a regular teacher in a D.C. local education agency.
Option C	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Has been hired or contracted as a regular teacher in a DC LEA;2. Has achieved passing scores for the DC-required basic skills (reading, writing, and math) exam and subject content exam matching the teaching assignment; * and3. The employing school has submitted a request to OSSE on the candidate's behalf seeking issuance of an Initial teaching credential in the subject and grade level of the teaching assignment.

*To determine which Praxis exams are required, go to DC Educator Licensure Exams. In some instances, license holders from other states may qualify for a test exemption or waiver.

Complete the Program Completion Verification Form and send to Dianna Geissert. The Neag Certification Officer will sign the form once you have completed all requirements (master's posted in PeopleSoft, certification tests passed, etc.).

Contact christopher.gooding@dc.gov for more information.

December 11, 2017